Ruins

This week we have been visiting Lindisfarne Holy Island, which is a wonderful place to spend some time to relax, reflect and breathe in the lovely sea air. The castle was just being refreshed by being re-plastered and lime washed and not much could be seen as everything needed to dry out before any furniture and displays will be put back but it was the Priory (once the starting point of a Christian missionary movement in the seventh century, from where the Christian faith spread to the Anglo-Saxon kingdom and the north of England) which caught my eye. Now just a ruin and a shadow of its glorious self it stands fragmented and ruined. How great it is that, unlike that Priory, in Christ we are renewed every morning through love, grace and mercy. Accepted, forgiven, loved for eternity! WOW!!!

For your Diary

Monday June 18th: M4G Event

At 8pm this on evening is Englands first World Cup 2018 game against Tunisia. Come and enjoy the game on a 60-inch screen over a couple of beers/soft drinks and some nibbles. Limited spaces available, so book your place with Erik.

Monday June 18th: On this day we are resuming our Prayer Meetings, which will be held on various Mondays. We'll be meeting at the church office and will be starting at 7.30 and finishing at 9.00pm. For your diary: Next meeting will be Monday 16th July.

Tuesday June 19th: Churches Together AGM

The AGM will take place at 7.30 pm at St. John's. Our guest speaker this year is Steve Jones from Shrewsbury Street Pastors. It should be a really interesting evening so please come along and find out more about their work and how we can support them.

Saturday June 30th: Inspire & M4G Event

Our next combined Inspire & M4G event will be on Saturday 30th June and will be a short walk to (and whoever wants to) around Alderford Lake and back with pitstop at the Alderford Cafe for tea, scones, jam and cream (just over £5). For those who cannot manage a walk, it's just a five-minute car journey to meet up with us. We will meet at Jubilee Park Bandstand at 1:30pm to arrive at Alderford Lake Cafe for 2:15pm. Let Erik or Jan know if you can make it.

Saturday August 18th: Wedding of Jessica Faith Muir to Benjamin Armon

Service followed by tea & cake at 12:30pm at St. Alkmunds Church, Whitchurch.

We are looking for ordinary prayer warriors!! Thy Kingdom Come - 24 hours of prayer 29th - 30th June 2018!

We are holding a 24 hour of prayer session at the Beacon Office from 6pm on Friday 29th June to 6pm on Saturday 30th June. We are inviting everyone who would like to be involved from the Beacon as well as other churches in our area to take part.

How will it work?

The prayer times will be divided into one hour slots with a variety of guided prayer activities available to help us focus or just a quiet space to pray. They will be suitable for families to come and pray together, pairs or individuals. We are inviting people to come and pray in a central space (in the Beacon Office) rather than at home. There will be a sign up sheet available with spaces for folks to indicate whether they would like to pray alone or with others. We would strongly recommend that during the night people pray in pairs. We ask that people turn up 5-10 minutes before their slot starts in order to continue a smooth continual covering of prayer. We are offering BYG the chance to launch the 24 hours of prayer between 6 and 8pm and then for others to take up the mantle from then.

Who is it for?

It's for everyone! If you have prayed before you are welcome. If you have never prayed before you are welcome! I am absolutely convinced that God uses us all and would be delighted to spend some time with us during those 24 hours.

How do I take part?

I have attempted to set up an online sign up sheet. It's the first time I have done this and so I hope it works! There will also be several of the usual clipboard sign up sheets available on the next few Sundays which I will collate. Please sign up and make sure every hour is covered. The link to the online sign up sheet is:

Please let me know if you have any issues with it!

I am really excited about this opportunity to pray as a body and encourage you to take up the challenge to cover our town, our churches, our neighbours, our friends and each other with 24 hours of continual prayer. It could be life changing!

Cloverley Hall 50 Years Celebration Day (see separate PDF)

The Celebration Day will include children's table top crafts. Laura is asking if Beacon folk could save their cardboard tubes from the inside of kitchen rolls and wrapping paper (not from toilet rolls) for children to make Victorian-era kaleidoscopes!
